Travelling to the Hertie School

Public transport connections

The closest public transport stops to the Hertie School of Governance are U Französische Straße on the U6 subway line and U Stadtmitte on the U2 and U6 subway lines. To find the best way to get around Berlin by public transport try using Berlin's official public transport website: www.bvg.de. They also offer a useful app.

From the airports

By public transport from Berlin-Tegel (TXL) International Airport: Take the bus line 128 towards "U Osloer Str." and get off at "Kurt-Schumacher-Platz". There change onto the underground line U6 towards "Alt-Mariendorf". Get off at the stop "U Französische Straße" (roughly 30 minutes).

By public transport from Berlin-Schönefeld (SXF) International Airport:

Option 1) Take the Bus X7 or 171 to "U Rudow" and change into the subway line U7 (direction: "Rathaus Spandau"). Change at "U Mehringdamm" and enter the U6 (direction: "Alt-Tegel"). Get off at the stop "Stadtmitte" (roughly a 45 minute ride).

Option 2) Take the S-Bahn (S9 direction: "Spandau") and change at S+U Bahnhof Friedrichstraße into the U6 (direction: "Alt-Mariendorf"). Get off at the stop "U Französische Straße".

Option 3) Fastest option depending on your arrival time: Take a regional train (RE7 "Dessau" or RB14 "Nauen") to S+U Friedrichstraße (roughly a 25 minute ride). From there take the subway line U6 towards "Alt-Mariendorf" and get off at the stop "U Französische Straße".

Please buy a ticket valid for "Berlin ABC" to travel from Schönefeld Airport.

By taxi

Travel time from Berlin-Tegel International Airport is approximately 20 minutes, with a fare of approx. 35€. Travel time from Berlin-Schönefeld Airport is approximately 30 minutes, with a fare of approx. 50€.

Please note that not all German taxi operators accept credit cards, so please check with the driver before starting your journey.
