

The right to work of asylum seekers and refugees: Leveraging and litigation for effectiveness?

Joint webinar

1 November 2021 | 4:00 - 5:45 pm CET | Online

- 4:00 pm – 4:05 pm – Chair's Welcome: Dr Natalie Welfens, postdoctoral researcher at the Centre for Fundamental Rights at the Hertie School
- 4:05 pm – 4:20 pm – The Right to Work of Asylum Seekers and Refugees in International Law
Professor Cathryn Costello (Hertie School & University of Oxford) & Professor Colm Ó Cinnéide (University College London)
The presentation will draw on the following ASILE Working Paper:
<https://www.asileproject.eu/the-right-to-work-of-asylum-seekers-and-refugees/>
- 4:20 pm – 4:35 pm – The right to work vs. rights at work: Centering decent work in refugee employment initiatives
Professor Jennifer Gordon, Fordham Law School, New York
- 4:35 pm – 4:50 pm – 5 Years of the Jordan Compact: Implementing the Right to Work for Syrian Refugees
Dr Lewis Turner, Newcastle University
- 4:50 pm – 5:00 pm – Coffee n Chat
- 5:00 pm – 5:15 pm – Recent Developments on the Right to Work in South Africa
Professor Fatima Khan, University of Cape Town
- 5:15 pm – 5:30 pm – Refugees, the Right to Work and Informal Markets in Latin America
Professor Feline Freier, Universidad del Pacífico (Lima, Peru)
- 5:30 pm – 5:45 pm – Q&A