

Visiting Research Fellows (Non-Stipendiary) Application Form

Name
Date and place of birth
Nationalities
Contact address
E-mail address
Telephone number
Current position
Institutional affiliation
Link to your page on your institution's website
Duration of stay at the Centre (maximum 2 semesters)
Preferred start* and end dates within the semester
Sources of funding during your time at the Centre
Title of project
Sponsor at the Centre
Names and contact details of two referees	1.
	2.

* Please allow at least six months between the application deadline and the beginning of the Fellowship.

Why would you like to be at the Centre for Fundamental Rights? (150-250 words)

If there are particular individuals that you hope to work with, please specify.

How does your work fit with the Centre's themes/areas? (150-250 words)

Please send an outline of the work that you intend to do at the Centre for Fundamental Rights, say how it fits in with your larger research project, and indicate its potential interdisciplinary reach (maximum 2 pages)

☐

Please tick

Will you be collecting data during your visit? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, has ethical approval been granted? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, from whom?

Please send a sample article or book chapter, already published, in PDF format (when relevant)

☐

Please tick

For PhD candidates: please enclose a letter of support from your PhD supervisor

☐

Please tick

What the Centre for Fundamental Rights offers you:

- Access to the Hertie School's library and other Library Services at the Hertie School
- A University e-mail address
- Access to printer and Wi-Fi
- Participation in the Colloquia and other research events organised by the Centre
- Visitors will be listed on the Visiting Fellows' section of the Centre's website; Relevant research work will be showcased on the Centre's website
- Opportunities to meet colleagues at the Hertie School and engage with a diverse, multi-disciplinary research community
- Depending on availability, fellows will have access to desk space at the Centre for Fundamental Rights

What the Centre for Fundamental Rights expects from you:

- Participation in CFR-generated research-based activities
- Involvement in the CFR intellectual community
- Attendance at weekly CFR colloquium and internal seminars
- Presentation of your research (as appropriate) in CFR forums
- Contributions to other CFR events/platforms as invited
- Acknowledgment of the CFR in any publications resulting from research done during the period of the appointment
- Written end-of-visiting fellowship report (300 words)

Please e-mail your full application to fundamentalrights@hertie-school.org including:

- Completed Application Form
- Full CV or Resume, including a list of publications
- Research proposal (see instructions above)
- For PhD candidates: letter of support from their PhD supervisor
- When relevant: sample article or book chapter (see instructions above)