

Methodology

The project consortium investigates 27 case studies of social enterprises in relevant countries, with over 230 interviews conducted on the core topics mentioned above. May 2015 saw the start of a large-scale quantitative data collection process, with over 1.000 social enterprises being surveyed on their practices, as well as on their input for policy recommendations.