Education

PhD Researcher, Hertie School , Berlin

2021 – 2023

As a member of the PerzepEU project, my research explores the conditions for the emergence of fiscal equalization transfers in a comparative framework, focusing on Canada, Switzerland and the United States, in order to understand contemporary and future policy directions for the EU's cohesion agenda. My supervisor is Dr. Markus Jachtenfuchs.

Master of Arts, European Studies (European Policy), University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam

2019 – 2020

My master's thesis investigated the implementation and monitoring of EU cohesion funds in Hungary. In addition, I researched European integration, cohesion policy in a broader European context, rule of law debates within the EU, and contemporary Hungarian politics.

Bachelor of Arts, History and Political Science (Double Major), McGill University, Montréal

2013 – 2018

Graduated with distinction; I focused on European history and politics, as well as having partook in global history and political science courses.

Bachelor's Exchange , Leiden University, Leiden

2017

Primary focus: EU law and economics, Dutch history.

Bachelor's Exchange , Institut Catholique de Paris, Paris
